

Stories at the Museum

Join us for educator led readings of history books and make a craft related to the book. Programs are free with admission and take place on the first and third Saturday of the month at 11:00 a.m.

Did You Have Fun Today?

If so, tell your teacher to bring your class to the Virginia Museum of History & Culture or connect with us online for a HistoryConnects program. Go to VirginiaHistory.org/learn for more information.

Finished? Try some of these other activities...

1. Play "Eye Spy" by coming up with clues about other objects and having your friends or family guess
2. Find your favorite object and present it to your friends or family
3. Explore the other galleries!

VIRGINIA MUSEUM OF HISTORY & CULTURE

THE STORY OF VIRGINIA Scavenger Hunt

Travel throughout the exhibition and read the exhibit labels to answer the following questions. Discover a hidden message by inserting the boxed letters in their corresponding location below based on the question number.

We have done the first one for you!

Hidden Message: H _ _ _ _ _
1 5 9 2 6 7 3 5 9 4 6 6 8

Who was the daughter of Chief Powhatan?

_ _ _ _ _ 1.

What was the principal crop exported from Virginia?

2. _ _ _ _ _

Who's eyeglasses are in the Revolution section of the gallery?

_ _ _ _ _ 3.

Who is credited for inventing the mechanical reaper?

4. _ _ _ _ _

What was the name for modern ships like the Monitor and Merrimack?

5. _ _ _ _ _

Directly after the Civil War, the country entered into a period called what?

_ _ _ _ _ 6.

What politician is known for his "pay as you go" taxes?

7. _ _ _ _ _

What Brown vs. Board of Education attorney's jacket is on display?

_ _ _ _ _ 8.

Who has a tennis racket in our museum, and a statue on Monument Avenue?

9. _ _ _ _ _

